RICHARD M. NIXON

RICHARD M. NIXON, the Republican Nominee for President, has carried more and heavier executive responsibilities, taken part in more executive decisions, and "sat in" for the President on more critical occasions, than any Vice President in American history. He is the only candidate who won't need "on the job" training for the Presidency.

His training for the White House has been thorough, rigorous and extensive. Selected by President Eisenhower as his running mate in 1952, and again in 1956, Dick Nixon quickly earned the Chief Executive's endorsement as, "the most valuable member of my team."

Vice President Nixon has been a strong right arm of the White House in foreign policy, in helping to direct the national economy to its record level, in stemming inflation, and holding living costs to reasonable levels. He has worked effectively as a leader for the President in Congress, and as the President's representative on official travels in 32 foreign countries. With his wife, Pat, the Vice President has won millions of friends for the United States throughout the world, and gained experience which few government leaders possess.

The Vice President served in the U.S. Navy during World War II, and spent fifteen months in the Pacific where he earned two battle stars and two commendations.

Born in Yorba Linda, California, on January 9, 1913, he worked as a boy in his Quaker family's general store, learning early the lessons of hard work, thrift, and high moral standards. The Vice President completed elementary and secondary schools in Whittier, California, and finished second in his class at Whittier College. He received his law degree, with honors, from Duke University in 1937.

Like her husband, Pat Nixon learned the lessons of work and thrift early. Her parents died when she was very young, and Mrs. Nixon worked in hospitals and department stores to gain a college education. The Nixons met in Whittier, where Pat had begun teaching school, and were married in 1940.

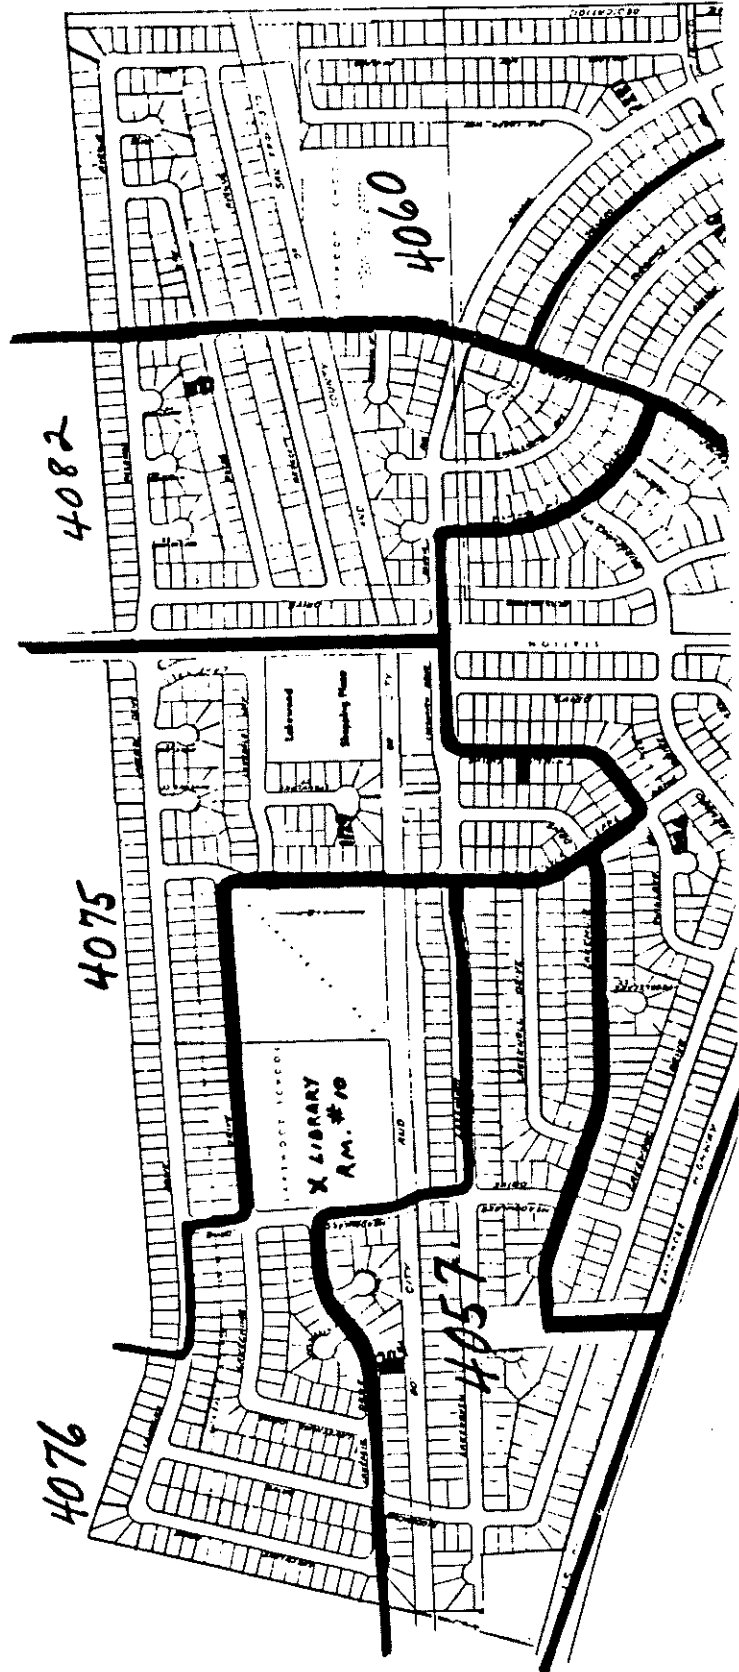

Richard Nixon practiced law for five years in Whittier before going into World War II service. He was elected to Congress in 1946, and was re-elected in 1948 with the nominations of both Republicans and Democrats. His voting record, service and outstanding ability won him election to the United States Senate in 1950.

The Nixons have two children, Tricia, born during his first political campaign in 1946, and Julie, born in 1948.

HENRY CABOT LODGE

HENRY CABOT LODGE of Massachusetts has broad experience in world diplomacy, and a legislative and military background. He is a mature government and political leader of great stature and ability. These attributes make him the ideal running mate for Republican Presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon.

For seven and one-half years, Ambassador Lodge has served as permanent Representative of the United States to the United Nations. During this time he has led the UN Free World forces battling the Communist world menace at close quarters—and usually has come off the winner. Since his appointment, Lodge has provided the leadership which has maintained Free World initiative in the UN forum. Since he took office, no Communist attacks on free people have gone unanswered.

Ambassador Lodge will bring to the Vice Presidency seventeen years of legislative experience—thirteen in the United States Senate; four in the Massachusetts State Legislature—and a notable military record.

With five years remaining in his third term as a U.S. Senator, Ambassador Lodge resigned, to fight with the first American tank detachment in the British Eighth Army in Libya. Later, he served in Italy, southern France, at the Rhine, and in southern Germany earning six battle stars.

Prior to his legislative, diplomatic and military career, Ambassador Lodge worked as a newspaperman with the Boston Transcript and the New York Herald Tribune, traveling widely throughout the world.

In the U.S. Senate, the Republican Vice Presidential nominee was author of the Lodge-Brown Act which created the Hoover Commission, resulting in governmental economies of more than seven billion dollars. His deep interest in foreign affairs began in the Senate, also, where he was a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Born on July 5, 1902, at Nahant, Massachusetts, Ambassador Lodge is a grandson of the late Henry Cabot Lodge who served in the United States Senate for thirty-one years. He was married on July 1, 1926, to Emily Sears of Beverly, Massachusetts. They have two sons, George Cabot and Henry Sears Lodge, and eight grandchildren. Their home is in Beverly, Massachusetts.

"PAT ON THE BACK"

BY BOB CASWELL

FOR SOME MONTHS NOW THE L.V.R.A. HAS BEEN CRITICISING SOME OF THE HOMES IN THE VILLAGE, WHICH ARE RUN DOWN. NOW THE L.V.R.A. THINKS IT IS TIME TO RECOGNIZE THE HOMES THAT HAVE HAD OUTSTANDING WORK AND CARE DONE ON THEM. OUR GOAL IS TO GIVE CREDIT TO THOSE WHO DESERVE CREDIT AND TO PASS ALONG IDEAS TO OTHERS IN THE VILLAGE. THIS MONTHS "PAT ON THE BACK" GOES TO THE FOLLOWING:

MR. & MRS. CLIFFORD HAMPTON, WHO RESIDE AT 226 SOCORRO. THEIR HOME IS A 3 BEDROOM HOUSE. IT HAS BEEN PAINTED A THUNDER GREY, WITH AQUA TRIM. AN ATTRACTIVE LAWN SHOWS EVIDENCE OF CARE AND UPKEEP. IN THE CENTER OF THE LAWN ARE THREE FAN PALM TREES. THE FRONT YARD IS OUTLINED BY A SMALL AQUA COLORED BOUNDENCE WITH A SMALL DUSTY MILLER HEDGE GROWING UNDER IT AND BORDERING THE FLOWER GARDEN ALSO. THE FLOWER GARDEN CONSISTS OF VARIOUS SHRUBS SUCH AS A PYRACANTHA, BRONZE PLANT & AN ASSORTMENT OF DECORATIVE ROCK WHICH BRING OUT THE HIGH LIGHTS OF IT. THREE MAPLE TREES ARE LOCATED IN THE PARKWAY. A "PAT ON THE BACK" IS WELL DESERVED.
